

Advocating to

STRANGERS

Introduce yourself and your cause first.

There is power in numbers. Advocate with others.

Don't burn bridges and be respectful. People won't always have the same views as you. You are a spokesperson for your cause, don't turn people away with poor behavior.

Communicate in a comfortable manner. Advocate by phone, letter, email, Zoom, or in person

Be flexible, advocate at different times in different locations.

Educate others with facts, your lived experience, and examples

Get to the point fast and stick to the topic
